COMPARISON SHEET - FAIRWAY HOMES

Exterior:

The Fairway Home designs of Bentley Ridge combine four residences in each building. This stacked-flat, village-style condo is designed to feel as if each unit is an end unit. With unobstructed views overlooking the pristine golf course, the architecture blends with the design of the Clubhouse and Family Fitness Center to accentuate the feeling of living at a private resort.

- High-roof pitch with cupola
- Gated entry
- Fully insulated windows with screens and Low-E glass
- Large, screened balcony
- Raised-panel, insulated garage door with 2-car parking on entry level, including the cart garage on terrace level
- High quality, mahogany entry door & sidelight
- Maintenance-free landscaping around buildings and at main entrance
- Exterior is a thoughtful combination of stacked stone - in styles indigenous to the area - and low-maintenance, color-coordinated James Hardie cement board siding products

Interior:

The Fairway Home designs of Bentley Ridge offer three floor plans to accommodate you. On the main level, choose from a pair of two-bedroom floor plans, while the upper level features three-bedroom units. Upper-level living also includes a private elevator, allowing direct access from the garage to your main living area or the terrace. Each unit in the four-plex has flex space on the ground level, featuring a wet bar, full bath and golf cart garage that provides easy access to the golf course. Privacy abounds in the unique design of these quad-unit, stacked flats.
